ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Without the enthusiasm of all the authors in this volume, this discussion of the unity of the canon from their different research perspectives would not have been actualized. We thank the authors for their participation in the discussion and for their contributions. We are grateful to Hilary O'Shea, Senior Editor of Classics at Oxford University Press, as well as to Lucy Qureshi, Commissioning Editor of Theology and Bibles, Enid Barker, Dorothy McCarthy and Lavinia Porter for their kind commitment to the project, the ease of accessibility and communication, and the precision of their comments on the typescript. The typescript was made possible by a number of assistants working at various stages of its preparation. Our thanks goes to Leann Long, who proofread many of the articles and who suggested changes for improvement of the English. For keying in the Hebrew, we thank Timothy Finlay and Hye Kyung Park. We are grateful to Paul Metzger who prepared the indices. For general editing, we are indebted to Katie Goetz, and, most of all, to Ray Bitar, who saw the production of the typescript from start to submission with enthusiasm and humour, patience and encouragement. A special thanks goes to Stefan Budian who was commissioned to design the cover of the book. Finally we thank Oxford University Press for consenting to publish this volume.
